According to the French Consumer Code (Article L 121-20-12), all Eurodrive customers having entered into a leasing contract outside of a physical Renault Dealership (e.g. through an online retail outlet, a call center based sales organization or through home soliciting) have the right to retract from that contract within 14 days of the delivery of the vehicle. Conditions apply. See article 1.2 of the Eurodrive General Terms and Conditions of Sale document for more details.

In conformity with articles 38, 39 and 40 of the French "Informatique et Libertés" Law (Law # 78-17 of January 6, 1978, modified by the Law # 2004 - 801 of August 6, 2004), the client has the right to access and rectify the personal data obtained by Renault and/or its agents as part of the processing of his/her Eurodrive reservation and opt out of any usage of this data by Renault and/or its agents (see article 11 of the Eurodrive General Terms and Conditions of Sale document for more details).

I hereby order from Renault S.A.S. the above automobile at the price and upon the terms stated herein and in the Eurodrive General Terms and Conditions of Sale document which I have read, understood and accepted.

I hereby authorize Renault and/or its agents to debit my credit card on file for all additional charges which may become due as a result of a change to the original contract or the misuse of the vehicle (e.g. additional rental days when vehicle is kept beyond the original return date, applicable return fees in case of a change of return location, cleaning cost of the vehicle when returned in an abnormally dirty condition, repairs resulting from improper usage of the vehicle, repatriation of the vehicle if not returned in an official Eurodrive Center, etc ...).
